Welcome to Thiruvananthapuram

Thiruvananthapuram, until recently known as Trivandrum, is a calm city with evergreen beauty. City's name bears the meaning 'Holy Land of Lord Anantha Padmanabha. Sree Padmanabha swamy temple which is the iconic landmark in the city gives the etymological reason behind it's name. It's capital city of Kerala (God's own Country) located at the south-western tip of Indian subcontinent. There are many famous tourist destinations in or near the city including, Kovalam beach, Sanghumukham beach, Napier museum, Neyyar Wildlife sanctuary and Neyyar dam, Kuthira malika palace, Ponmudi, Poovar, Varkala cliffs and many others. Another major tourist spot, Kanyakumari, is about two hours ride from the city. The city is centered on Railway Station with a radius of 20km. It is well connected by rail, road and air with other parts of the country. Hotel accommodation is available in plenty suiting all tariff ranges.

Details of the hotel in the city are available in the website www.keralatourism.org of Kerala Tourism Development Corporation
